The programme that has been arranged will afford entertainment for young and old and at the conclusion of the exercises ice cream and cake will be sold. All who are interested in the Civic League work should attend.

Aged Lady Dies.

Mayesville, June 2.—Mrs. Hortense Nettles died here yesterday afternoon after an illness of several weeks following an attack of paralysis. She was 78 years of age and was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church for nearly all of her life. For over 39 years and since the death of her husband, the late John Nettles, she had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Mayes. Besides Mrs. Mayes, the deceased is survived by three other children: Mrs. Hattie Wells of Florence, John Nettles of Dillon, and Ormsby B. Nettles of Sumter. She leaves one brother, Robert Haynsworth of Sumter, and one sister, Mrs. Pauline McCown of Florence.

The funeral services were held this morning at 9.45 at the late home of the deceased, being conducted by the Rev. R. L. Grier, and the remains were taken to Sumter for interment in the Sumter cemetery.

Go to Sick Daughter's Bedside.

Mrs. R. D. Lee, accompanied by her two sons, Messrs. John and Dozier Lee, have gone to New York to be at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Dicks, who became so ill several days ago that her life has been despaired of. Yesterday friends of the family heard from New York that Mrs. Dicks' condition remained unchanged, but no news has been received today.

Tomato Club Meeting.

The meeting of the Tomato Clubs of Sumter county heretofore announced for June 4th has been postponed until July 10th.

Mary Lemmon, Supervisor Tomato Clubs, Sumter County.

Five months ago the Republican strawgraspers were confident Charles Whitman was presidential timber. Now if you intimate he is a dub they will tell you he is worse than that.—Houston Post.

Death.

From The Daily Item, June 1.

Mrs. Hattie DuRant died this morning at 10 o'clock after a long illness. She spent several months this spring in a hospital in Richmond, Va., returning home several weeks ago with her health somewhat improved and her relatives and many friends were encouraged to hope for her recovery. The improvement was, however, only temporary and she has been gradually sinking for the past several weeks, and her death was not unexpected. She was a daughter of the late A. D. Ricker of this city and is survived by her stepmother, Mrs. Annie L. Ricker, and three brothers, Messrs. E. P. Ricker and Geo. L. Ricker of this city and Mr. Fred Ricker of Maine. Her husband, Mr. Lucius B. DuRant, died several years ago.

The funeral services will be at 5.30 o'clock tomorrow, Wednesday, afternoon from the residence of Mrs. Annie L. Ricker, on North Main street.

Jealous Negress Carves Neighbor.

From The Daily Item, June 1.

"The Jealous Wife" would serve for the title of a short story from real life, enacted on East Canal street last night. The star role was taken by Lena Calhoun, who entered the scene with a vicious looking knife in her hands, to add a little atmosphere. The scene was at the home of Lavinia Dixon, and the atmosphere was created when Lavinia felt the touch of the cold steel raking across her throat. Lena, needless to say, being the "guiding spirit" of the steel. It all happened because Lena's husband forgot the "till death do us part" clause in his wedding vow, and paid too much attention to Lavinia Dixon. This didn't suit Lena, who remembered perfectly that she had taken hubbly "for better or for worse," so she immediately proceeded to do her "worst" to Lavinia with a pocket knife. Lavinia is in the hands of the doctors and Lena is resting in a police cell to await further developments.

Wisacky News Notes.

Wisacky, June 2.—The farmers are having a discouraging time, trying to gather the small grain, on account of so much rain. Unless the weather conditions improve real soon the grain will be badly damaged, if housed at all.

The crop conditions generally are very unfavorable. All crops on low lands will be almost a total loss.

Last week Mr. Thomas had the misfortune to lose his house with all its contents by fire. His family barely escaped in their night clothes. This is a heavy blow to Mr. Thomas, as he is a poor man with a large family. He has the sympathy of the entire community.
